TO BE FOLLOWED BY DAMAGE SUIT

Case of Gunning Against Walter-
mire and Crim Will no More End
Than Another Will Begin.

O. S. JOHNSON VS. JOHN GRAY

Plaintiff Alleges he Was Maliciously
Prosecuted—Suit Starting Wednesday About Over.

The damage suit of Mrs. Alma W. Gunning against Dr. Tell C. Waltermire and Jesse Crim, was expected to reach the jury some time late this afternoon. The defense had about completed its case at noon. Waltermire had been on the witness stand and Crim followed him after the noon recess. Mrs. Gunning asks damages in the sum of $5,000 for injuries received when the buggy in which she was riding upset, alleged to have been caused when the horse frightened at the auto in which the defendants were riding.

Mrs. Gunning claims that her left foot was injured permanently. According to evidence, a heavy grind stone fell across her foot and ankle when the buggy upset. The grind stone was being hauled in the buggy. This morning on the witness stand Mrs. Gunning described her injury and at the conclusion of the testimony exhibited her ankle and foot to the jury.

At this point of the testimony the defendants filed a motion and affidavit for a physical examination by some physician. The court granted the motion and appointed Dr. J. C. Sexton to make the examination. On the witness stand Dr. Sexton stated that a nerve in the left foot had been injured and was causing her the pain of which she complains. He stated that no bones were broken and that it was possible for her to stand on her heel.

Dr. Waltermire on the stand described the accident as he saw it. He stated that the machine was going not to exceed fifteen miles an hour when they attempted to pass the buggy and that just as the auto drew up alongside the horse it frightened and dumped the buggy into the ditch. He stated that he had assisted in helping free Mrs. Gunning's leg from the grind stone, but at that time an examination did not show any bones broken.

He was examined at length regarding the automobile, which he claims was owned at the time by Crim. It was brought out that the license was still in his name, despite the fact that Crim was supposed to own the machine.

The present term of court promises to set a record for the number of damage suits tried. Unless something unforeseen arises the $5,000 damage suit of Otis S. Johnson against John A. Gray will start tomorrow. This case promises to be one of the hardest fought and sensational cases tried here in a long time.

Johnson alleges that Gray, maliciously and without probable cause instituted criminal proceedings against him on March 1, 1915 before Mayor Bebout on charge of stealing 3 brood sows. Two days later, according to the complaint, Gray had Johnson arrested in the circuit court on charge of stealing a cow. Both cases were dismissed and Johnson bases his claim for damages on the alleged fact that he was greatly humiliated and suffered great agony of the mind.

Expecting some difficulty in securing a jury, Judge Sparks ordered a special venire of seven names drawn for jury service. The special venire is as follows: Will H. McMill-

WALTER PETERS APPOINTED

Becomes District Deputy of the Knights of Pythias Lodge?

Walter W. Peters of this city has been appointed district deputy for this district of the Knights of Pythias lodge. His appointment was announced yesterday by Charles F. Remy, the new grand chancellor.

Many members of the lodge here attended the annual convention of grand lodge which closed in Indianapolis yesterday evening. The meeting defeated the proposed constitutional amendment to raise the initiation fee from ten to twenty dollars.

SCHOOLS TO TAKE PART IN PARADE

Industrial Pageant Will be Held at Such a Time That Will be Convenient For Children.

FLOATS BEING CONSIDERED

The public schools will in all probability take a prominent part in the industrial parade which will be held Wednesday afternoon, October 27, in connection with the eighth annual horse show and fall festival here. Last year, when the first big industrial parade was held here, there was only one school float. The parade took everyone by surprise and for that reason the school officials did not appreciate the possibilities.

This year the parade will be started about three o'clock or a little later, so as to give the school floats opportunity to get in. Because of so many new entries this year, it is practically certain now that the parade will be a bigger thing than it was last year. Some of the departments of the high school may have a display in the parade.

NIGHT SCHOOL WILL BE OFFERED HERE

Commercial Department Will Give
Course That is Equal to Ordinary Business College

THREE NIGHTS EACH WEEK

The commercial department of the high school has arranged to give Rushville a night school providing enough interest is taken in the venture. The course will be open to anyone desiring to take it and will be in direct charge of Prof. E. W. Barrington, who is in charge of the commercial department in the high school.

It is stated that the course will equal the ordinary business college course and will consist of three lessons a week. There has been some talk of a night school here and it is believed that the plan will meet with success. The cost of the course will be just enough to cover the expenses of Prof. Barrington and the light bill. To make the course a success it is necessary to have at least twenty in the class. Prospective students are urged to see Prof. J. H. Scholl or Prof. Barrington at the earliest possible moment as it is the desire to start the class next week.

The Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias will meet in regular session tonight.

RILEY PRAISED BY WORD AND SONG

Birthday Anniversary of Hoosier
Poet is Appropriately Celebrated Wednesday Night.

HIS POETRY ILLUSTRATED

Rushville Artists Contribute Part to Make Program Greatly Appreciated by Large Crowd.

By spoken word and song, the praises of James Whitcomb Riley, who today celebrated his sixty-second birthday, were sounded Wednesday night at the Riley day celebration at the Graham Annex auditorium, under the auspices of the Parent-teachers association of the public schools.

John A. Tittsworth, president of the association, presided and the Rev. C. M. Yocum, after making a brief address about Riley, in which he classified Riley's poems, introduced the numbers on the program as illustrative of some certain kind of Riley poetry.

The main floor of the auditorium was filled with people and the evening proved one of the most thoroughly enjoyable ones ever arranged and carried out by Rushville people alone.

President Tittsworth announced the purpose of the entertainment and what the association hoped to do. He introduced Miss Gladys Tittsworth, who played a violin solo. She was enthusiastically applauded. The Rev. Yocum then took charge of the program.

"Although James Whitcomb Riley was born a poet," said the minister, "there was not poetry in his baby cry. Walking the floor at night with a baby is very prosey. Take it from me, I have had some experience in this night infantry work."

The speaker recalled that poets were generally regarded as sissy, but that Riley was far from that. He cited "The Ole Swimm' Hole" as proof. The Rev. Mr. Yocum recalled that Riley's father was a Greenfield, Ind., attorney and that he took his son around over the circuit, this instilling in him a spirit of roaming. Riley's ideal in his youth became sign painting, the speaker said, and he followed that for a time, then joined a medicine show and finally a legitimate show. In his teens he contributed verse. His first works were published at the age of thirty under an assumed name and shortly after he began writing under his own name.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum recalled that Riley's fame was not confined to Indiana, but that recently Yale and the University of Pennsylvania had honored him and that the public schools of Pittsburgh would today observe his birthday. The speaker said that the criticism that people outside of Indiana had come to believe all Hoosiers spoke like Riley's dialect poetry because of the wide circulation of his works was unjust. Rather, he said, it casts a reflection on people outside of the state to insinuate that they thought all Hoosiers spoke as Riley writes in dialect verse. The Rev. Mr. Yocum asserted that if the criticism were fair, it might be lodged against any other dialect poet.

"The humanity of his poems is one of the predominate characteristics," continued the minister. "His wonderful imagination has placed him in the position of the person he writes of. 'Out to Old Aunt Mary's' is one of the best examples of the human element in his works."

Miss Norma Smith gave the poem to her own accompaniment on the

HONOR IS PAID HOOSIER POET

James Whitcomb Riley is Serenaded
at 12:01 a. m. Today With
"Loves Own Sweet Song."

BUSY DAY OUTLINED FOR HIM

Will be Guest of Honor Tonight at Banquet Which Will be Attended by Prominent Men

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 7.—Lock-
erbie street was the first spot in the whole wide world today to know that
James Whitcomb Riley's birthday
had arrived. At 12:01 a. m. the little street echoed from end to end
with the strains of "Love's Own Sweet Song," played by the brass
pieces of the Indianapolis orchestra.

Riley's dreams must have enfolded
the melody at first because the Hoosier poet was not at once
awakened. When the fact that he was being serenaded dawned on him,
Riley wanted the little party of forty to wait while he passed the cigars.

"No, you go back to sleep," they
told him, and left the little lane in quiet once more.

But before they left members of the Musikkerein sang several German folk songs and Riley admitted
he was having the time of his life.
And they left a big basket of flowers at his door and twined about the basket were ribbons of gold bearing
the inscription:

"From the Indianapolis orchestra
and the Musikkerein,
"Brothers in song.
"To
"James Whitcomb Riley,
"Who has made song glorious.
"October 7, 1915.
"12:01 a. m."

When Riley climbed out of bed
on the second floor of his
roomy, old-fashioned brick house,
deep in the shadows of old Locker-
bie street today he found all Hoos-
ierdom bowing and scraping at him
in smiling recognition of his 62nd
year's beginning.

Lockerbie street is a little rustic
village highway, with rambling old
trees and battered brick walls lining its dusty ribbon of road. Riley never wanted it improved. He had to write a poem of just how he felt
about it to keep the councilmen
from fixing it up. His other protests went unheeded, but the poem
saved the day; and this instant,
though the modern city sweeps in
macadam lines and skyscrapered
visage out in all directions from it,
Lockerbie street is still and doubtless will remain—just Lockerbie
street.

Not far over the hills from the
city lies the Little Town o' Tail Holts
and a few miles further on is Th'
Old Swimm' Hole. On country roads down through the state you
might if you searched right well,
find cross-roads' signs, merchants'
legends daubed on rough boards,
relics of those long-gone days
when Jimmy Riley rambled over the hills and the away.

Today the world bows low to
James Whitcomb Riley, "The
Hoosier poet;" and a genial smile
such as no one in the world but Riley ever could conceit, wreathes
his great big, boyish old face and—
well, it just all seems mighty good.

Children in every township of
ninety-two counties recited Riley
poems and heard stories of the man whose fame has overtaken him while
he yet lives.

Indianapolis was the gathering
place of thousands of Riley's admirers. Notable men of letters

Lets go at Aetna Plant.

READY TO SHIP TO ALLIES

(By United Press.)

Emporium, Penn., Oct. 7.—Four workmen were killed, another was so badly hurt he is not expected to live and eight others were less seriously injured in an explosion of 25,000 pounds of powder at the Aetna Explosives plant early here today. The building was completely torn down.

The powder was to have been sent to the shipping department today to be prepared for shipment to the allies. Officials expressed the opinion that the explosion was accidental.
The loss was estimated at $300,000.

CLOUDY FOR FIRST GAME

Washington, Oct. 7.—Although cloudy weather is fore-casted for Philadelphia for tomorrow, officials of the weather bureau here today said they thought the opening game of the world's series could be played notwithstanding. Saturday, they said, might bring sunshine.

The first lecture of the lecture course of the Manila circuit was delivered in that town Wednesday night. Edmund King, an eastern orator was the attraction. There will be one entertainment each

MAYOR BELL ON WITNESS STAND

Defendant in Election Conspiracy
Trial Enters Denial to Charges
of State Witnesses.

STATE RESTS CASE TODAY

Says he Called City Employees Together and Told Them to Work
For Good Democratic Ticket.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., October 7.—
Mayor Joseph E. Bell took the stand today as first defense in the
trial in which he charged with con-
spiring with Thomas Taggart, Chief
of Police Perrott and 125 others to corrupt the Marion county elections
of 1914.

The state rested at 9:30 a. m. after having consumed three weeks by
its evidence.

Mayor Bell addressed every answer directly at the jury and the jury was attentive.

Bell denied all knowledge of fraud
at the polls; denied that he had con-
versed with Bud Gibson (confessed
conspirator) at the polls; denied
that he in any way sought to influence the primaries fraudulently; asserted that he had nothing whatever
to do with the election of primary
officials; asserted that he advised no
member of a primary board to count more votes for Edward Lyons
or any other candidate than he actually got and denied that he had instructed anyone to violate a single
election statute.

The mayor testified that the Saturday before the primaries he called
all city employees together and urged
them to take part in the primary" so
that a Democratic ticket would be selected that would meet with the
favor of all Democrats." He emphatically denied that he directed any policeman to favor any set of candidates. Bell said he pledged his support to certain candidates for nominating, including Edward Lyons
for treasurer and Theodore Portteus, for sheriff, saying he had personal knowledge of their character
and efficiency.

* NOTES OF THE BELL TRIAL *

(By U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 7.—Here
is something that the jury trying Mayor Bell won't know until after it
has returned a verdict: Joseph Roach, the man who studied law in Michigan city prison, was the one who engineered the L. O. Hamilton
sensation.

Roach conducted the examination
of the president of the Columbia
Club before the grand jury, but when it came to the court room he took a seat back of Claris Adams, the young deputy and coaxed Adams
while the latter questioned Hamilton.

Roach has been attacked on every
possible occasion during this trial,
and when he was ready to play his
trump card he thought best to let a young man without enemies to play
it.

If it is true as Mr. Hamilton testified, that he handed Mayor Bell $500 in $1 and $2 bills shortly before the primaries, where did the money go? Hamilton, who is also president of the Employer's Assn.,
testified that his business associates
wanted Theodore Porteus nominated
on the Democratic ticket for sheriff
and collected this money to turn out the vote for him. Porteus testified the following day that he never had seen any of the $500 and that WOOLTEX tailored garments lead the fashions. And the leaders of all the beautiful Wooltex coats are these

Exclusive Pompadour coats

"Exclusive" is a frequently misused word. Not so here. When we say Wooltex Pompadour Coats are Absolutely Exclusive, we can show you why.

Only one woolen mill makes Pompadour cloth. Every yard of that cloth goes to the Wooltex tailors. Unless the Wooltex label is in the coat, it cannot be a Pompadour cloth coat Pompadour cloth is woven by a special process from the finest wools. It is comfortable in weight and very warm. Tailored as only Wooltex coats are tailored, these Pompadour coats are remarkably stylish and beautiful.

The six coats illustrated here are Pompadour coats—the style leaders

Pompadour Coat 2054
A very dressy new model with fur collar and novel belt effects. Beautifully graceful, stylish model in exclusive Pompadour cloth. Choice colors.

You will see every correct style tendency of the season in these coats—natural-figure lines that are so graceful and pleasing, the modish flare, high collars of cloth or fur, belted effects.

You will be delighted with the range of plain colors and the color combinations, as well as the variety of models.

There are subdued browns, blues and black; there are brighter colors, all so refined as to meet the approval of your good taste.

Every Pompadour coat—like every other coat that bears the Wooltex label—is tailored on Wooltex honor. See them all. The assortment is complete. There is a Wooltex coat that will just suit you.

Amusements

The Princess offers for tonight a three act society drama, entitled "The Mystery of Mary," featuring Betty Gray, Evart Overton and Anders Randolph. It is said to be full of action and interest. Tomorrow Richard Travers and Rene Noel will be seen in, a two act drama "A Man Afraid." Hughie Mack, Flora Finch, Kate Price, will also be seen in a dandy comedy, "Some Duel."

"Chasing the Limited," is the title of the first picture at Gem tonight. It is a thrilling railroad drama featuring Marie Walcamp. Eddie Lyons and Victoria Ford will also be seen in a dandy Nestor comedy, "Lost—Three Teeth." Tomorrow Elsie Jane Wilson will be featured in a two act drama, "Mountain Justice."

Lawrence D'Orsay. Everybody knows him. He's the silly old foghorn who made such a tremendous success on Broadway in "The Earl of Pawtucket," and he's coming to the Gem theatre on Wednesday in the five-reel version of the "legitimate" play which Harry Myers, the Universal director, has just completed. D'Orsay is an Englishman and is just as funny off stage as he is on. And on the screen he's even funnier than ever. Rosemary Theby, the Universal star is chased across the Atlantic Ocean by Mr. D'Orsay in the film version of "The Earl of Pawtucket" and the complications in the farce-comedy make the play a rip-roaring scream from start to finish.

Miss Vera Short entertained a number of friends last evening with a pitch-in supper at her home in West Third street. The following were present: The Misses Louise Hogsett, Beatrice Wilson, Letha Higgins, Esther Wagoner, Ethel Newhouse, Dorothy Moore, Ruth Smith, Nellie Bates and Clea Mack.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talbert entertained at dinner last evening at their home in North Jackson street, the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bearinger. The evening was devoted to a rook party.

Mrs. St. Clair Parry, of Indianapolis, entertained several guests this afternoon with a theater party at the Riley celebration, held at the Murat theater. Mrs. Parry gave the party in honor of Miss Louise Mauzy of Rushville, who will be married next Tuesday. Following the theater party, the guests will be entertained at dinner tonight, at the home of Mrs. Parry, in North Meridian street.

came far from all directions to honor nature's poet.

A busy day was outlined for Riley. Some doubt was expressed that he could follow the program without severely taxing his strength, which has broken in recent years. This morning Riley visited schools here where the children had been drilled in many pretty honors to him. Riley made no secret of the fact that he treasured the tribute paid him by the children.

Favorite Riley poems were for the first time interpreted in dancing and music. At the Murat theatre "An Afternoon With Riley" was produced quite ambitiously. "Little Orphan Annie," "The Circus Day Parade" and other favorites were interpreted by young women of the social set.

The banquet at the Claypool this evening in Riley's honor will be representative. Four hundred invitations were sent out.

The list of speakers for tonight includes William Allen White of Emporia, Kans., who will tell of "The Day We Celebrate;" John H. Finley commissioner of education of the state of New York; George Ade; Young E. Allison of Louisville; Albert J. Beveridge; Senator John W. Kern; Vice President Thomas R. Marshall; Ellery Sedwick editor of Atlantic Monthly and Col George Harvey. Charles Warren Fairbanks will be toast master.

Riley had been hoping for lots of sunlight and high temperature today. This, he said, has been a most outrageous summer. "I haven't been able to get up a perspiration but twice," Riley dislikes cold weather. He spends his winters in Florida. He is not writing now either for the hand that served him so well so long is "mullish."

However, he did write a new poem for today, and will read it tonight.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

(The Beauty Seeker.)

"The real secret of keeping young-looking and beautiful," says a well-known hygienist, "is to keep the liver and bowels normally active. Without these requisites, poisonous waste products remain in the system, polluting the blood and lodging in various organs, tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese, nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled and sallow of face."
"But to get liver and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil after-effects, has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of unquestioned merit, which may now be had in convenient tablet form. Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the humble May apple, or its root, which has been called 'vegetable calomel' because of its effectiveness—though of course it is not to be classed with the real calomel of mercurial origin. There is no habit-forming constituent in these 'net' tablets—that's the name—and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these harmless vegetable tablets tend to impart tone and elasticity to the relaxed intestinal wall. Sentinal tablets, which may be procured from any drug store—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-troubled person."

Chief Cause of Pimples, Blotches, Sallow Skin

(Messenger of Health.)

Unslightly eruptions, pimples, boils, blotches, sallow or muddy skin, usually are due to a sluggish liver, a constipated bowel—and a polluted blood stream as a consequence. How foolish in such cases to resort to outward applications, which can never have natural permanent results. If more people only knew it, there is a very simple remedy, to be found in any drug store, which is as effective as it is harmless and quick acting. It is an old formula, long recognized by the medical profession, which has been put in tablet form, and at such small cost no one need be deprived of its wonderful benefits.

"Sentinal tablets"—that's the name—an entirely vegetable and there's no habit-forming ingredient. You need only get about a dime's worth and swallow one at bedtime to realize there's nothing else quite so good for the purpose. The action in the morning is so easy, so soothing, and instead of a weakening after-effect, you feel truly refreshed and invigorated. Sentinal tablets are not only the finest remedy known for constipation and torpid liver, but offer the sanest, most sensible treatment for complexion difficulties of the character mentioned.

Great Demand for New Constipation Remedy

They say that the advent of the "sentinal tablet," as a vegetable substitute for calomel has resulted in an extraordinary demand for this remarkable product. It seems to have made a hit particularly with those afflicted with chronic constipation, who were quick to recognize its advantages over calomel and the usual laxatives.

Sentinal tablets, aside from their efficacy, doubtless owe their success largely to a tendency to aid in bringing about natural functioning—instead of encouraging the "cathartic habit." Also, instead of injuring the membranous lining of the organs involved, they exert a healing influence. Instead of weakening, they add tone to the intestinal wall. And they work so easily and gently, they are of course preferred on this account to the violently acting purgatives. Their inexpressiveness is another reason for the popularity of sentinal tablets. One need procure only a dime's worth and take one tablet upon retiring, to be convinced that the ideal remedy for constipation, torpid liver, and their many evil consequences, has finally been found.—Druggists Review.

Prevention Idea Grows

With the near approach of Fire Prevention Day, which has grown so rapidly from a great desire in the minds of a few to a vast national undertaking, cites all over the country are preparing for record breaking parades.

The most remarkable phase of this new celebration is the spirit with which busy men in all sections of the country are devoting their time to forward the cause. City officials, trained to an appreciation of the far-reaching effect our heavy fire losses impose upon all the people, are offering their service to the advancement of Fire Prevention Day with a will in accord with their other efforts after civic betterment. Fire chiefs in towns and cities are busy with men and apparatus, getting everything in shape for the parade, that is really to be an inspection by the people of their municipal forces for fire defense.

As a prominent off-shoot of Fire Prevention Day there has grown a week of good resolutions that is fast gaining a nation-wide impetus as Fire Prevention Week. The idea of this enlargement of the original plan was to prepare the people for the one big day.

Schools giving special attention to the week, teachers impressing the importance of the fire rules laid down by the schools as well as the need for reasonable care at all times in the home. The value of child training in this direction is too apparent to require emphasis. The majority of our fires originate in the home and the majority of those, who cause these fires are children. And only too frequently they pay the penalty. Statistics compiled in London, England, show that of 151 deaths caused by fire, 62 were children under twelve, making the proportion of their loss approximately forty per cent. of the total death toll.

Business houses, especially factories, are taking advantage of this week to warn and instruct employees; and to insure great safety through the removal of unnecessary fire hazards, and providing adequate means for extinguishing fire.

With these various endeavors paving the way, the big day at the close of the week bids fair to make so lasting an impression, great benefits are sure to accrue—and Fire Prevention Day will be in truth a concerted, national action against a merciless enemy. This day is born of the germ that has made America first among the nations of the earth. The germ that produced the railway, steamboat, telegraph, telephone, that demanded of science protection against disease—that gave birth to liberty. Yet we are still slaves to fire because we have not organized against it.

Fire Prevention Day is a great national endeavor to have all the people at the same time, thinking, talking and working to protect their lives, homes and their cities against that most cruel and wanton of all losses—fire. Fire Prevention Day is America's opportunity and America's duty. It is the day when every citizen should do his part to help close the red route to destruction.

James J. Hill urges that we loan a billion or so to the belligerents of the Triple Entente. They are buying things from us, he argues, and if we do not lend them the money they cannot pay us for our goods, our exports will fall off and our crops will decline in value. Then all this tremendous "war order" export business is not real business at all—eh, Mr. Hill? Anyone can do business if he will lend his customers the money to pay their bills.

The warring Democratic factions in Maryland will soon hear their master's voice from the White House. State issues, personal ambitions are as nothing where Mr. Wilson rules. He is the whole thing in the Democracy, and he does not hesitate to let people know it.

Some Democrat in Kentucky is going to have a letter pretty soon. It will be dated at the White House and it will be signed by Woodrow Wilson. It will tell how much the President desires the election of a Democratic Governor in the blue-grass country, etc., etc.

In Boston they have it that the Colonel is going to vote the Republican ticket next. Stranger things have happened.

HOOSIER HISTORY

(Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Association.)

INDIANA DEMOCRACY.

Early Indiana Democracy was rock bed founded upon Jeffersonian and Jacksonian principles. It held that the Federal government was strictly limited in its powers and that internal improvements by National aid were unconstitutional. It gradually assumed a conservative position on the tariff question; emphasized the power of the states, and the rights of the individual. After the slavery issue dominated it, the Democracy espoused territorial expansion. Indiana was under Democratic rule continuously for nearly a fifth of a century—1843-1861—preceding the Civil War.

Current Comments

Alike, But so Different

(Portland Oregonian)
As a reason for the armed occupation of Haiti and for the proposed protectorate over that republic, Secretary of State Lansing said:

"These are not properly revolutions: they are unorganized enterprises which involve no question of principle; they are ruining the country. While they are in progress people are starving in the streets of Port-au-Prince because they cannot secure the supplies of food which abound in the country. Things have been going from bad to worse and something must be done. The United States Government has no purpose of aggression, and is entirely disinterested in promoting this protectorate. We have not even asked for Mole St. Nicholas."

In warning the rival chiefs of Mexico last June that they must get together or the United States would do something, President Wilson said that the "leaders of the revolution with whose purpose in the first place he sympathized, in the very hour of their success have disagreed and turned their arms against one another"; that "there is no proper protection either for their own residents or the citizens of any other nation resident or at work in her territory"; that "Mexico is starving and without a government," and that "the people and Government of the United States want nothing for themselves in Mexico."

There is a close similarity between these descriptions of conditions in the two countries, but how different is the treatment we have given. We alone occupy Haiti, stop the fighting restore peace and demand a protectorate. We call representatives of six other nations into conference on the case of Mexico, send the war chiefs an invitation to meet in conference and wait till all reply. In a few days the Pan-Americans are to meet again, and talk some more, perhaps write more moving appeals.

If we had done in Mexico a year ago what we have done in Haiti, Mexico might easily have been as peaceable as Haiti is today. The difference between the two countries today is due to the difference between watchful and vigorous action.

Charles Reed, Who Married Knightstown Widow, is Wanted.

Governor Ralston has terminated the parole of Charles Reed, who was sentenced to the state prison from Henry county for bigamy and who violated his parole. Reed married a wealthy widow in Knightstown and later it developed that he had a wife living in the east when his first wife appeared on the scene. Wife No. 1 offered to take him back, but he was given a prison sentence for bigamy. It is announced that he violated his parole, which has issued last November, for failing to comply with its provisions by making reports at stated periods.

Install this hot-air heating system in your home— at the cost of an ordinary stove!

IF, in your home, you are using an old style stove, you are paying too much money for too little heat. For in the ordinary stove 50 to 75% of all the heat generated goes up and out through the chimney—a dead waste of heat and of money.

There's a new way now—a vastly better way that is revolutionizing home heating. It's the thing that everyone has been looking for—a hot air heating system that works as thoroughly and satisfactorily as the best small hot-air furnace, yet costs very little more than any ordinary heating stove to buy, no more to install, and much less to operate.

The diagram shows how it works

Fresh air (just as with a furnace) is drawn in at the sides, heated evenly to several hundred degrees temperature, and discharged—not through the flue and chimney, but through the top of the hot-air chamber into the room. This creates a thorough circulation of hot air that will successfully heat several rooms. Even the upstairs rooms can be heated by the aid of a simple pipe connection.

Estate Hot Storm

—the Stove with a "Little Furnace" in it

is two heating systems in one—not a stove, not a furnace, but a combination of the best features of both. It sets in the room like a stove, its exterior looks like a stove but there the similarity ends. For its interior is utterly different from any stove you have ever seen—inside it is built like a hot-air furnace.

We want every prospective heating stove purchaser in this locality to inspect the Estate Hot Storm at our store—to give us an opportunity to explain it—before buying a stove of any kind. You owe it to yourself to do this—and to do it soon.

Gunn Haydon

Rushville, Indiana.

Don't fail to attend the demonstration of the Estate Hot Storm to be given at our store by an expert from the factory on Friday and Saturday, October 15th and 16th

Protected by U. S. Patent

beautifully stung, they figured. For Magee, he got George Whitted and Oscar Dugey, both Brave irregulars; for Dooen he got Bert Niehoff, and for Lobert, came Demaree, a collapsed sensation, and Milton Stock, whom McGraw had tried for three years to make a first baseman of, and failed.

First base was filled. Second was a huge aperture through which Moran in his dreams could see game after game slipping away. Niehoff was a comparative youngster, having seen but one year in the Big Time. Moran plugged second with Niehoff.

At short there was a hole, left there since the desertion of the inevitable Mickey Doolan. From the Pacific coast, Moran reached out and grabbed a youngster—Bancroft. Today there isn't a shortstop in any league that has anything on this bird.

The hole at third was a regular canyon. Moran took Bobby Byrne, a cog of Fred Clark's old 1909 champions, and alternating him with young Milton Stock, got by.

Here with one exception in the building up of an infield which has stood under the strain of setting a pennant race against such famous defenses as Schmidt-Evers-Maranville and Smith, and Merkle-Doyle-Fletcher and Lobert, and it was built at a monuments notice.

Moran was lucky? Yah, so was Jess Willard, Percy Houghton, the Leland Stanford crew, Bill Johnston, Bob Gardner and others who came through in the face of monumental odds.

In the outfield, Pat had Dode Paskert, a veteran of rather doubtful stability, and Cactus Cravath, another veteran, noted solely for his long drives when he connected, which wasn't by any means regularly. There was also Beals Becker, a sort of baseball nomad, who had seen service under many managers. Moran alternated Becker with Whitted until he had his outer works running smoothly. There was the hole left by Slugging Sherry securely stopped.

Who is Pat Moran?

Pat's just a big, red-headed, red-faced Irishman who doesn't know when he's licked, and doesn't know any more than just to do the best he can with what he's got. He never was a star ball player, as stars go.

John Patrick confesses to 39 years. He first yelled for more feed in Fitchburg, Mass., and broke into the game in 1897 as a part of the Lyons club in the New York jungle circuit. The club went floozy at the end of the next season, and Pat tied up his other shirt in his other handkerchief and trekked up to Cortland, New York, close to the Canadian border. He made eating money for a while there, and the next season hooked on with Montreal, from where the Braves signed him in 1900. After serving several years at the Hub, he was shipped to Chicago where he was Johnny Kling's understudy for several years. In the winter of 1909-10, the Phils got him.

Pat's a catcher by trade. But he hasn't worked at it for some time. Of late, he's been spending his time building up a championship baseball team.

DELEGATIONS ARE GOING

Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—If the first day's sale of seats is a good omen, the crowd will be a record breaking one at the football game here October 30th between Indiana and Washington and Lee. Many of the good seats were grabbed off when the sale opened besides there was a very large mail order list provided for. That the seats would be sold out before the day of the game was the prediction made by those who have had some experience in matters of that sort.

The executive committee has issued instructions that the first applications shall be taken care of promptly and as the result the mail orders are increasing each day.

Scottsburg, Indiana, is organizing a large delegation which will come in a specially chartered car. The Big Four railroad is the first of the steam roads to make plans for the game and the management of the road announced that a special train, with special rates, will be run from Elkhart and Goshen the morning of the game.

Indianapolis people are taking greater interest in the game this year than they have ever done. All the civic bodies including the Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade, Rotary Club, and similar organizations are lending every assistance possible.

Black Silk Stove Polish

Makes a brilliant, silky polish that does not rub off or dust off, and the shine lasts
four times as long as ordinary stove polish. Used on sample stoves and sold by hardware and grocery dealers.

All we ask is a trial. Unsifted on your cook stove, your parlor stove or your gas range. If you don't find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Insist on Black Silk Stove Polish.
Made in liquid or paste—one quality.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness,
and that is by the use of the catarrh tube. When this tube is inflated
you have a running sound or imperfect
hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine

WAR PREVENTS BANKRUPTCY

Illinois Manufacturer Sees After Effects if Something is Not Done at Once.

MANY WILL BE AVAILABLE

They Will Work For More Meager
Compensation That They Received Before Conflict.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—"The only thing that has saved the United States from commercial bankruptcy has saved the United States from commercial bankruptcy has been the European War," declares a leading Illinois manufacturer who has recently returned from England and Germany. "Remove that cause and the manufacturers of the world will make America the battle ground of the greatest industrial war the world has ever seen."

The earning capacity of the 100-000,000 people of the United States represents a purchasing power greater than that of any two other nations of the world put together,
and the standard of living to which they have become accustomed makes that purchasing power potential under normal conditions. Surely such a market is worth striving for by our foreign competitors, even a protective tariff. And under a Democratic tariff the domestic market, so far as our industrial life is concerned, becomes well-nigh a gift
causa mortis to our foreign rivals.

The Illinois manufacturer goes on to say: "A month—two months—
after peace is declared in Europe will see President Wilson and Congress in a state of panic due to ruinous industrial conditions. A vast army of men who have been engaged in the European war will be available for the peaceful industrial pursuits of these countries, and they will be willing or forced to give their services for even less than the meager compensation they received before the war. And not only men, but thousands of women, now being trained in the mills will continue their work and add to the competition which American labor must meet. It must be remembered also that the purchasing power of Europe will be curtailed, especially in the matter of luxuries. Everything

save the bare necessities of life will be to a great extent unmarketable in Europe and will be dumped upon this country. Dress goods, textiles of nearly every variety that are used by both sexes, jewelry, china and a thousand and one articles of a similar nature will be shipped to the United States under our extremely accommodating Underwood tariff America will be the one great cash market of the world and there will be a tremendous scramble on the part of every European nation to see which can get here first."

Of course this prophecy is based on the possibility of this country being cursed with a Democratic administration at the time peace in Europe is declared.

According to this manufacturer,
the great industrial plants in Germany are all being operated at capacity or are being maintained in such condition and such state of organization that if peace were declared tomorrow they would begin with double shifts to win back their temporarily lost industrial supremacy. Products of many plants are being stored in anticipation of a resumption of commercial activity after the war. Ocean transportation difficulties have largely shut off the exportation of certain articles from Germany, Sweden, Norway and France, and English plants are getting the benefit. This explains why our importations of china, cutlery,
and textiles are now coming so largely from England.

"What does this signify to the United States?" he was asked.
"You cannot too strongly impress upon our people the importance of tariff revision before European factories begin to dump their products
in the United States," he replied.
"Unless conditions are foreseen and a tariff barrier erected against the influx of European manufactured articles, this country will experience
a period of hard times, financial depression, business failure and suffering on the part of our great army of wage earners that will make previous periods of industrial stagnation resemble seasons of comparative prosperity."

In other words, the Republican party must be delegated to attend to the situation in a business-like manner.

MANAGEMENT COMPLIMENTED

The annual report of the Rush
county board of charities, published in the Indiana bulletin of charities and correction by the board of state charities, says that though the county infirmary is old and not well arranged for comfort, the inmates are apparently well satisfied. The report follows:

Poor Asylum, Rushville—The
building is old and not well arranged for comfort in the winter season, as we understand comfort, but the men and women are satisfied and many of them are more comfortable than they ever were before they entered the home. We have always found the building clean in every department and the yards and gardens well kept. The inmates speak highly of the new superintendent and matrons. The food is sufficient and well prepared. The cook has the reputation of being the best in Rush county.

County Jail, Rushville—The building is clean, and, judging from all appearances the inmates must be cared for, but under the new management we have not found any prisoners on our tours of inspection.
Each time the cells have been empty.

THREE MACHINE MEN GO ON TRIAL

First Cases Growing Out of Street
Car Strike in Fort Wayne—Assault Charges

NEW ORDINANCE IN EFFECT

(By United Press.)
Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 7.—Three machinists of the Bowser plant who went on trial today charged with assaulting Roy Thompson, a strike-breaker of Indianapolis, was the first local court case growing out of the Fort Wayne street car strike.

Joseph Haffner, John Waldo and Leslie Libby were the three defendants. They are charged with having stopped Thompson's streetcar and kicked Thompson insensible. They have been out on $50 bond.

This was the day named by the city attorney when the new ordinance directed against the street car company should go into effect. The new ordinance, passed since the strike started, provides that the company shall not employ men to run its cars who have had less than 14 days local experience.

The ordinance is directed at strike breakers many of whom have been imported from various Indiana cities.

Storm Buggies that Will Keep You Warm, Look Nice and Wear Well. That's the Kind.

Everybody wants a nice storm buggy and I have one for everybody. Some of my competitors are going to quit selling buggies, or at least they advertise they are, and I am going to take their word for it, and just between ourselves, I have been looking for it for sometime, and I have reason for looking for it. Every year I sell more buggies than I did the year before and there is not much room left for competition. You naturally ask the question "How do you increase your buggy business all the time?" and the answer is that I give more buggy value for the money than anyone else, treat everybody alike and treat them right.
I can prove I give more value for the money than my competitors as I am handling a storm buggy this winter, formally sold by one of my competitors, and I am selling it for $10.00 less than it ever sold for before, remember the same buggy for $10.00 less. Maybe you bought one last year and paid the extra $10.00. If you did, remember when you need a buggy look around. It has saved lots of vehicle buyers money to buy them of me, and I want you for a customer. The only way you can sell things right, is to buy them right, and not throwing any bouquets at myself, I sure buy right and I want to give you the advantage of good buying. Good buying, and a large volume of business make it possible for me to sell you a buggy from $10.00 to $15.00 cheaper than any one else. It is a simple proposition to

FARMERS OFTEN PUT OFF WORK

Odd Jobs of Overhauling Implements Neglected Until Necessity Demands it of Them.

WINTER IS TIME FOR THIS Large Part of Wheat Crop Given Special Treatment Before Storing Because of Moisture.

Washington, Oct. 6.—So long as good weather continues in the fall most farmers are so busy with threshing, corn and potato harvest, fall seeding, hauling, etc., that less important work is usually postponed until winter. However, the exercise of a little thought and the expenditure of a very few minutes at this season will often save not only hours but days later on when the weather and roads get bad and outdoor work is impossible.

Then the odd jobs of overhauling the farm equipment, repairing, painting, etc., which have been put off until a slack season, will require attention. But all too often the necessary materials will not be on hand, and the work will be delayed until it is impossible to make a trip to town, and not infrequently it remains undone until the busy season the following year, when necessity demands it.

A list should be made of the things that will be wanted for this work. It will only take a few minutes to jot them down as they are brought to mind, and then on the next trip to town they may be bought and set aside so they will be ready when wanted. The conditions of the different machines which will, or should be, overhauled should be noted, and the parts which will need to be replaced purchased. Then there are the odd jobs of repairing buildings, fences, gates, etc., which will require lumber and nails; there is no need to make an extra trip for them when wanted—they may be brought home the next time a load is taken to town. Likewise the lumber and hardware for the small jobs of construction which should be done before spring. Also the paints, oils, putty and brushes which will be required in painting the various farm wagons, implements, inside woodwork, furniture, etc. And, above all, the necessary materials for improvements you have been planning for the house should be obtained so that they can be completed this winter and not have to wait another year.

Everyone knows how much more satisfactory it is to have the necessary equipment ready to perform a piece of work when an opportunity presents, than to get started on it and then find that it will have to be postponed until a trip can be made to town, which, even if the roads are good and the trip can be made at once, means a loss of time and added expense.

It is astonishing how much can be accomplished on rainy days or during slack time, when the tools and materials are at hand, and there should be no difficulty in overhauling practically every implement on the farm during the winter season, and have them ready for next season's work. The value of these "stitches in time" is frequently out of all proportion to the small amount of time they require. Aside from the satisfaction of having each implement in first-class shape when it is needed, there is the actual saving accomplished by avoiding having horses and hired help standing idle while repairs are being made, which, in turn, frequently means a loss of part of a crop.

It is useless to go into detail concerning the many jobs which can be accomplished with profit the winter

Much of this year's wheat crop has so high a moisture content that special treatment before storing it is necessary to insure its keeping in good condition. Tests conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, however, have demonstrated that it is not always necessary to put such wheat through a commercial drier, and that by mixing high moisture and low moisture wheat together the damp wheat can be put into good condition for storage. In these tests, a carload of white wheat from the Pacific Coast, containing 9.7 per cent moisture, was mixed with a carload of eastern red winter wheat testing 15.1 per cent in moisture. This difference of 5.4 per cent in the moisture content was reduced ten days after the mixing to only 0.5 per cent. In the course of the transfer of the moisture from the red to the white wheat no appreciable change in temperature was detected.

The information obtained from these tests will greatly facilitate, it is said, the handling of wet wheat this year. Millers can do away with part of the extra work of drying wet wheat by simply mixing it with the dry wheat they may have on hand, and if no dry wheat is available, they may dry out one carload and then mix it with another carload of high moisture content, instead of being compelled to dry out both carloads. If mills or elevators are equipped to mix and dry at the same time, this method will greatly increase their capacity, for taking care of large quantities of damp wheat.

More than 240 new game laws were enacted during 1915—a larger number than in any previous year except 1911, according to Farmers' Bulletin 692, "Game Laws for 1915." Forty-three States held regular legislative sessions, and in all of these States except Arizona, Georgia, and Nebraska some changes were made in the statutes protecting game. The largest number of new game laws passed in any one State was 61, in North Carolina; out in California, Connecticut, Maine, New Jersey, Oregon, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin the number reached 10 or more. Several measures were vetoed, including a general game bill in Idaho, the first bill appropriating the hunting-license fund in Pennsylvania, a bill protecting bears in California, and three sections of the game bill in Washington. A number of bills were introduced for the purpose of harmonizing the State laws or migratory birds with the Federal regulations. In at least nine States changes were made which brought the seasons into substantial agreement, viz. California, Connecticut, Maine, Michigan, New Hampshire, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Uniformity was also secured by provisions in the laws of Connecticut, Maine, New Mexico, North Dakota, Washington, and Wisconsin, prohibiting hunting between sunset and sunrise.

A DRESS AFFAIR.

"It was a merry party of little folks that took part in the wedding Parents, friends and citizens filled the house and were pleased. The little Misses in their long skirts with trains, were evidently much more at ease than their companions in the conventional black coats, but they certainly were no more graceful or dignified. "So speaks the Spirit Lake Iowa, Herald, concerning the Tom Thumb Wedding given there recently. Sixty of Rushville's little folks will present the Marriage of the Midgets at the Main Street Christian church tomorrow evening. They are busily engaged in rehearsals and will be fully prepared when the curtain rises.

DIVORCED A WEEK.

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to Mrs. Mary H. Vance and J. Frank Vance. Mrs. Vance was granted a divorce from him only last week and the reconciliation was effected in a short time. In the decree for divorce Mrs. Vance was given the custody of their children and $250 alimony.

piano and responded with an encore when the crowd became insistent.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum said the human element not only predominated throughout Riley's poems, but that he breathed the life of a little child into many. He said this was best illustrated in "Little Orphant Annie" which was sung by Miss Kathleen Hogsett. Illustrative of the same characteristic of his poetry is "A Temptuous Resolve," which was sung by Richard Pugh. Another typical childhood rhyme is "The Jolly Miller," which was sung by Miss Mary Louise Poe.

"An element that must be found in poetry to make it abiding is humanity," said the minister, "Another element is simplicity. Riley lived with the common people. His simplicity is most marked in his nature poetry. He has communed with nature. The message nature brought to Riley is one of faith, hope and love. He interpreted for man what nature taught him."

An example of this was "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin." It was sung by Miss Esther Anderson and Miss Dorothy Sparks.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum also said that Riley had written many patriotic poems, expressing Riley's love for the nation. One of the best illustrations of this phase of his poetry is "Old Glory," which was given by Miss Frances Frazee. Miss Frazee's rendition was very popular with the audience and she had to give two encores.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum said another element in his poetry which would make it abiding was that of philosophy and religion. The speaker said the religious note is very predominant and it is realized that he is a philosopher from some poems, such as "He is Dead." Illustrative of this phase, Miss Mary Louise Bliss sang "A Life Lesson."

In closing, the Rev. Mr. Yocum said he felt the audience had had a very comprehensive view of Riley and his works. The last number on the program was a beautiful solo, "A Little Bit of Heaven," by Mrs. Stiles of Cincinnati, who is visiting here. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. S. G. Huntington.

DRIVE THROUGH BALKANS STARTS

Austro-German Troops Cross Three Rivers Forming Serbia's Northwestern Frontier.

CONSTANTINOPLE THE GOAL

Coincident With Beginning of New Phase, Allies Renew Onslaught on Western Front.

(By United Press.)

London, October 7.—The long expected Austro-German drive through the Balkans to Constantinople has begun.

Austro-German troops in large force have crossed the Danube, Save and Drina, the three rivers forming Serbia's northwestern frontier. This afternoon official Berlin statement claims the crossing were effected at several points and that the Austro-Germans have obtained a firm footing on Serbian soil.

No word had come from Sofia this afternoon, but it believed possible Bulgarian troops have already crossed the eastern frontier of Serbia, striking for the Nish-Salonika railroad. The Greek minister to Sofia reported only two days ago that Bulgaria would invade Serbia when the Austro-German drive began. No formal declaration of war has come from Sofia but dispatches from there this afternoon declared Bulgaria expected to be at war within a few hours.

Coincident with the beginning of the great Austro-German offensive in the Balkans, the allies have renewed their onslaught on the western front.

The German war office this afternoon admitted that the Russian-French infantry drove the Germans from important Heights in the Champagne region, but declared other success were only temporary.

Paris reports the repulse of heavy German counter attacks on newly won ground, with the German heavy losses.

SCHOOLS OBSERVE RILEY'S BIRTHDAY

Pretentious Program is Given at Jackson School and Elsewhere

Short Talks Are Given.

SOME NUMBERS ON EDISON

Riley day was remembered in all of the school buildings here today. Some of the rooms held programs and others did not observe the day so pretentiously, the teachers only making short talks regarding the beloved Hoosier poet.

Jackson school arranged a program for the occasion. The programs were made by the children out of writing paper folded once and the numbers were written out by the pupils. The program rendered was as follows:

Song "America"—School.
"Prayer Perfect"—Grade 6A.
Short Sketch of James Whitecomb Riley—Margaret Herkless.
Song, "An Impetuous Resolve"—Richard Pugh.
Edison Number—"The Raggedy Man."
Reading "Nobody Knows"—Emerson Price.
Song, "Little Orphant Annie"—Upper Grades.
Edison Number—"Out to Old Aunt Mary's."
March—"Under the Double Eagle."

SEES EARLY END TO WAR.

Berlin, October 7.—Quick and overwhelming victories for the central empires and a speedy ending of the war will follow Bulgaria's entrance to the conflict, it is believed in military circles here today.

Bell never had mentioned it to him.

Lucius O. Hamilton had been mentioned as a Republican candidate for Mayor. His position as president of the biggest Republican club in Indiana president of the Employers' and president of the Hamilton-Harris Co., a wholesale tobacco firm has brought him to the front much recently.

Labor leaders with their minds on the two strikes in Indianapolis while Porteus was sheriff, were delighted when Hamilton testified that his business associated had contributed to Porteus' aid and that he had advanced money to George Coffin, the sheriff-elect. They said this demonstrated that the Employers' Association had played to win no matter which candidate was elected. They were disappointed with the testimony of Porteus, but asserted that after all, Hamilton said he thought the money was going to help Porteus.

TO BE FOLLOWED BY DAMAGE SUIT

Case of Gunning Against Walter-
mire and Crim Will no More End
Than Another Will Begin.

O. S. JOHNSON VS. JOHN GRAY

Plaintiff Alleges he Was Maliciously
Prosecuted—Suit Starting Wed-
nesday About Over.

The damage suit of Mrs. Alma W. Gunning against Dr. Tell C. Waltermire and Jesse Crim, was expected to reach the jury some time late this afternoon. The defense had about completed its case at noon. Waltermire had been on the witness stand and Crim followed him after the noon recess. Mrs. Gunning asks damages in the sum of $5,000 for injuries received when the buggy in which she was riding upset, alleged to have been caused when the horse frightened at the auto in which the defendants were riding.

Mrs. Gunning claims that her left foot was injured permanently. According to evidence, a heavy grind stone fell across her foot and ankle when the buggy upset. The grind stone was being hauled in the buggy. This morning on the witness stand Mrs. Gunning described her injury and at the conclusion of the testimony exhibited her ankle and foot to the jury.

At this point of the testimony the defendants filed a motion and affidavit for a physical examination by some physician. The court granted the motion and appointed Dr. J. C. Sexton to make the examination. On the witness stand Dr. Sexton stated that a nerve in the left foot had been injured and was causing her the pain of which she complains. He stated that no bones were broken and that it was possible for her to stand on her heel.

Dr. Waltermire on the stand described the accident as he saw it. He stated that the machine was going not to exceed fifteen miles an hour when they attempted to pass the buggy and that just as the auto drew up alongside the horse it frightened and dumped the buggy into the ditch. He stated that he had assisted in helping free Mrs. Gunning's leg from the grind stone, but at that time an examination did not show any bones broken.

He was examined at length regarding the automobile, which he claims was owned at the time by Crim. It was brought out that the license was still in his name, despite the fact that Crim was supposed to own the machine.

The present term of court promises to set a record for the number of damage suits tried. Unless something unforeseen arises the $5,000 damage suit of Otis S. Johnson against John A. Gray will start tomorrow. This case promises to be one of the hardest fought and sensational cases tried here in a long time.

Johnson alleges that Gray, maliciously and without probable cause instituted criminal proceedings against him on March 1, 1915 before Mayor Bebout on charge of stealing 3 brood sows. Two days later, according to the complaint, Gray had Johnson arrested in the circuit court on charge of stealing a cow. Both cases were dismissed and Johnson bases his claim for damages on the alleged fact that he was greatly humiliated and suffered great agony of the mind.

Expecting some difficulty in securing a jury, Judge Sparks ordered a special venire of seven names drawn for jury service. The special venire is as follows: Will H. McMill-

SCHOOLS TO TAKE PART IN PARADE

Industrial Pageant Will be Held at
Such a Time That Will be Convenient For Children.

The public schools will in all probability take a prominent part in the industrial parade which will be held Wednesday afternoon, October 27, in connection with the eighth annual horse show and fall festival here. Last year, when the first big industrial parade was held here, there was only one school float. The parade took everyone by surprise and for that reason the school officials did not appreciate the possibilities.

This year the parade will be started about three o'clock or a little later, so as to give the school floats opportunity to get in. Because of so many new entries this year, it is practically certain now that the parade will be a bigger thing than it was last year. Some of the departments of the high school may have a display in the parade.

NIGHT SCHOOL WILL BE OFFERED HERE

Commercial Department Will Give
Course That is Equal to Or-
dinary Business College

THREE NIGHTS EACH WEEK

The commercial department of the high school has arranged to give Rushville a night school providing enough interest is taken in the venture. The course will be open to anyone desiring to take it and will be in direct charge of Prof. E. W. Barrington, who is in charge of the commercial department in the high school.

It is stated that the course will equal the ordinary business college course and will consist of three lessons a week. There has been some talk of a night school here and it is believed that the plan will meet with success. The cost of the course will be just enough to cover the expenses of Prof. Barrington and the light bill. To make the course a success it is necessary to have at least twenty in the class. Prospective students are urged to see Prof. J. H. Scholl or Prof. Barrington at the earliest possible moment as it is the desire to start the class next week.

The Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias will meet in regular session tonight.

RILEY PRAISED BY WORD AND SONG

Birthday Anniversary of Hoosier
Poet is Appropriately Celebrated Wednesday Night.

HIS POETRY ILLUSTRATED

Rushville Artists Contribute Part to Make Program Greatly Appreciated by Large Crowd.

By spoken word and song, the praises of James Whitcomb Riley, who today celebrated his sixty-second birthday, were sounded Wednesday night at the Riley day celebration at the Graham Annex auditorium, under the auspices of the Parent-teachers association of the public schools.

John A. Titworth, president of the association, presided and the Rev. C. M. Yocum, after making a brief address about Riley, in which he classified Riley's poems, introduced the numbers on the program as illustrative of some certain kind of Riley poetry.

The main floor of the auditorium was filled with people and the evening proved one of the most thoroughly enjoyable ones ever arranged and carried out by Rushville people alone.

President Titworth announced the purpose of the entertainment and what the association hoped to do. He introduced Miss Gladys Titworth, who played a violin solo. She was enthusiastically applauded. The Rev. Yocum then took charge of the program.

"Although James Whitcomb Riley was born a poet," said the minister, "there was not poetry in his baby cry. Walking the floor at night with a baby is very prosy. Take it from me, I have had some experience in this night infancy work."

The speaker recalled that poets were generally regarded as sissy, but that Riley was far from that. He cited "The Ole Swamin' Hole" as proof. The Rev. Mr. Yocum recalled that Riley's father was a Greenfield, Ind., attorney and that he took his son around over the circuit, this instilling in him a spirit of roaming. Riley's ideal in his youth became sign painting, the speaker said, and he followed that for a time, then joined a medicine show and finally a legitimate show. In his teens he contributed verse. His first works were published at the age of thirty under an assumed name and shortly after he began writing under his own name.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum recalled that Riley's fame was not confined to Indiana, but that recently Yale and the University of Pennsylvania had honored him and that the public schools of Pittsburgh would today observe his birthday. The speaker said that the criticism that people outside of Indiana had come to believe all Hoosiers spoke like Riley's dialect poetry because of the wide circulation of his works was unjust. Rather, he said, it casts a reflection on people outside of the state to insinuate that they thought all Hoosiers spoke as Riley writes in dialect verse. The Rev. Mr. Yocum asserted that if the criticism were fair, it might be lodged against any other dialect poet.

"The humanity of his poems is one of the predominate characteristics," continued the minister. "His wonderful imagination has placed him in the position of the person he writes of. 'Out to Old Aunt Mary's' is one of the best examples of the human element in his works."

Miss Norma Smith gave the poem to her own accompaniment on the

HONOR IS PAID HOOSIER POET

James Whitcomb Riley is Serenaded
at 12:01 a. m. Today With
"Loves Own Sweet Song."

BUSY DAY OUTLINED FOR HIM

Will be Guest of Honor Tonight at Banquet Which Will be Attended by Prominent Men

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 7.—Lock-
erbie street was the first spot in the
whole wide world today to know that
James Whitcomb Riley's birthday
had arrived. At 12:01 a. m. the little street echoed from end to end
with the strains of "Love's Own
Sweet Song," played by the brass
pieces of the Indianapolis orchestra.

Riley's dreams must have enfolded
the melody at first because the Hoosier poet was not at once
awakened. When the fact that he
was being serenaded dawned on him,
Riley wanted the little party of forty to wait while he passed the cigars.

"No, you go back to sleep," they
told him, and left the little lane in
quiet once more.

But before they left members of
the Musikverein sang several German folk songs and Riley admitted
he was having the time of his life.
And they left a big basket of flowers at his door and twined about the
basket were ribbons of gold bearing
the inscription:

"From the Indianapolis orchestra
and the Musikverein,
"Brothers in song.
"To
"James Whitcomb Riley,
"Who has made song glorious.
"October 7, 1915.
"12:01 a. m."

When Riley climbed out of bed
on the second floor of his
roomy, old-fashioned brick house,
deep in the shadows of old Locker-
bie street today he found all Hoos-
ierdom bowing and scraping at him
in smiling recognition of his 62nd
year's beginning.

Lockerbie street is a little rustic
village highway, with rambling old
trees and battered brick walls lining its dusty ribbon of road. Riley
never wanted it improved. He had to write a poem of just how he felt
about it to keep the councilmen
from fixing it up. His other pro-
tests went unheeded, but the poem
saved the day; and this instant,
though the modern city sweeps in
macadam lines and skyscrapered
visage out in all directions from it,
Lockerbie street is still and doubt-
less will remain—just Lockerbie
street.

Not far over the hills from the
city lies the Little Town o'Tail Holts
and a few miles further on is Th'
Old Swamin' Hole. On country
roads down through the state you
might if you searched right well,
find cross-roads' signs, merchants'
legends daubed on rough boards,
relics of those long-gone days
when Jimmy Riley rambled over the hills and far away.

Today the world bows low to
James Whitcomb Riley, "The
Hoosier poet," and a genial smile
such as no one in the world but Riley ever could conceit, wreathes
his great big, boyish old face and—
well, it just all seems mighty good.

Children in every township of
ninety-two counties recited Riley
poems and heard stories of the man
whose fame has overtaken him while
he yet lives.

Indianapolis was the gathering
place of thousands of Riley's admirers. Notable men of letters

MAYOR BELL ON WITNESS STAND

Defendant in Election Conspiracy
Trial Enters Denial to Charges
of State Witnesses.

STATE RESTS CASE TODAY

Says he Called City Employees Together and Told Them to Work
For Good Democratic Ticket

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., October 7.—
Mayor Joseph E. Bell took the
stand today as first defense in the
trial in which he charged with con-
spiring with Thomas Taggart, Chief
of Police Perrott and 125 others to corrupt the Marion county elections
of 1914.

The state rested at 9:30 a. m. after having consumed three weeks by
its evidence.

Mayor Bell addressed every answer directly at the jury and the
jury was attentive.

Bell denied all knowledge of fraud
at the polls; denied that he had con-
versed with Bud Gibson (confessed
conspirator) at the polls; denied
that he in any way sought to influence the primaries fraudulently; asserted that he had nothing whatever
to do with the election of primary
officials; asserted that he advised no
member of a primary board to
count more votes for Edward Lyons
or any other candidate than he actually got and denied that he had instructed anyone to violate a single
election statute.

The mayor testified that the Saturday before the primaries he called
all city employees together and urged
them to take part in the primary so
that a Democratic ticket would be
selected that would meet with the
favor of all Democrats. He emphatically denied that he directed any
policeman to favor any set of candidates. Bell said he pledged his support to certain candidates for
nominating, including Edward Lyons
for treasurer and Theodore Porteus, for sheriff, saying he had personal knowledge of their character
and efficiency.

* NOTES OF THE BELL TRIAL *

(By U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 7.—Here
is something that the jury trying Mayor Bell won't know until after it
has returned a verdict: Joseph
Roach, the man who studied law in Michigan city prison, was the one
who engineered the L. O. Hamilton
sensation.

Roach conducted the examination
of the president of the Columbia
Club before the grand jury, but when
it came to the court room he took a
seat back of Claris Adams, the young deputy and coached Adams
while the latter questioned Hamilton.

Roach has been attacked on every
possible occasion during this trial,
and when he was ready to play his
trump card he thought best to let a young man without enemies to play
it.

If it is true as Mr. Hamilton testified, that he handed Mayor Bell
$500 in $1 and $2 bills shortly before the primaries, where did the
money go? Hamilton, who is also
president of the Employers' Assn.,
testified that his business associates
wanted Theodore Porteus nominated
on the Democratic ticket for sheriff
and collected this money to turn
out the vote for him. Porteus testified the following day that he never had seen any of the $500 and that

Amusements

The Princess offers for tonight a three act society drama, entitled "The Mystery of Mary," featuring Betty Gray, Evart Overton and Anders Randolph. It is said to be full of action and interest. Tomorrow Richard Travers and Rene Noel will be seen in, a two act drama "A Man Afraid." Hughie Mack, Flora Finch, Kate Price, will also be seen in a dandy comedy, "Some Duell."

"Chasing the Limited," is the title of the first picture at Gem tonight. It is a thrilling railroad drama featuring Marie Walcamp. Eddie Lyons and Victoria Ford will also be seen in a dandy Nestor comedy, "Lost—Three Teeth." Tomorrow Elsie Jane Wilson will be featured in a two act drama, "Mountain Justice."

Lawrence D'Orsay. Everybody knows him. He's the silly old foghorn who made such a tremendous success on Broadway in "The Earl of Pawtucket" and he's coming to the Gem theatre on Wednesday in the five-reel version of the "legitimate" play which Harry Myers, the Universal director, has just completed. D'Orsay is an Englishman and is just as funny off stage as he is on. And on the screen he's even funnier than ever. Rosemary Theby, the Universal star is chased across the Atlantic Ocean by Mr. D'Orsay in the film version of "The Earl of Pawtucket" and the complications in the farce-comedy make the play a rip-roaring scream from start to finish.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talbert entertained at dinner last evening at their home in North Jackson street, the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bearinger. The evening was devoted to a rook party.

Mrs. St. Clair Parry, of Indianapolis, entertained several guests this afternoon with a theater party at the Riley celebration, held at the Murat theater. Mrs. Parry gave the party in honor of Miss Louise Mauzy of Rushville, who will be married next Tuesday. Following the theater party, the guests will be entertained at dinner tonight, at the home of Mrs. Parry, in North Meridian street.

came far from all directions to honor nature's poet.

A busy day was outlined for Riley. Some doubt was expressed that he could follow the program without severely taxing his strength, which has broken in recent years. This morning Riley visited schools here where the children had been drilled in many pretty honors to him. Riley made no secret of the fact that he treasured the tribute paid him by the children.

Favorite Riley poems were for the first time interpreted in dancing and music. At the Murat theatre "An Afternoon With Riley" was produced quite ambitiously. "Little Orphan Annie," "The Circus Day Parade" and other favorites were interpreted by young women of the social set.

The banquet at the Claypool this evening in Riley's honor will be representative. Four hundred invitations were sent out.

The list of speakers for tonight includes William Allen White of Emporia, Kans., who will tell of "The Day We Celebrate;" John H. Finley commissioner of education of the state of New York; George Ade; Young E. Allison of Louisville; Albert J. Beveridge; Senator John W. Kern; Vice President Thomas R. Marshall; Ellery Sedgwick editor of Atlantic Monthly and Col George Harvey. Charles Warren Fairbanks will be toast master.

Riley had been hoping for lots of sunlight and high temperature today. This, he said, has been a most outrageous summer. "I haven't been able to get up a perspiration but twice," Riley dislikes cold weather. He spends his winters in Florida. He is not writing now either for the hand that served him so well so long is "mullish."

"And poems can't be dictated you know."

However, he did write a new poem for today, and will read it tonight.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

(The Beauty Seeker.)

"The real secret of keeping young-looking and beautiful," says a well-known hygienist, "is to keep the liver and bowels normally active. Without these regularities, poisonous liver products remain in the system, polluting the blood and lodging in various organs, tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese, nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled and sallow of face."

"But to get liver and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil after-effects, has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of unquestioned merit, which may now be had in convenient tablet form. Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the humble May apple, or its root, which has been called 'vegetable calomel' because of its effectiveness—though of course it is not to be classed with the real calomel of mercurial origin. There is no habit-forming constituent in 'Sentinel' tablets—that's the name—and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these harmless vegetable tablets impart firmness and elasticity to the relaxed intestinal wall. Sentinel tablets, which may be procured from any druggist—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-troubled person."

Chief Cause of Pimples, Blotches, Sallow Skin

(Messenger of Health.)

Unlabeled eruptions, pimples, boils, blotches, sallow or muddy skin, usually are due to a sluggish liver, a constipated bowel—and a polluted blood stream as a consequence. How foolish in such cases to resort to outward applications, which do but temporarily relieve the surface results. If more people only knew it, there is a very simple remedy, to be found in any drug store, which is as effective as it is harmless and quick acting. It is an old remedy, but one that has been put in tablet form, and at such small cost no one need now be deprived of its wonderful benefits.

"Sentinel tablets"—that's the name—are entirely vegetable and there's no habit-forming ingredient. You need only get about a dime's worth and swallow them at bedtime to realize there's nothing else quite so good for the purpose. The action in the morning is so easy, so soothing, and instead of a weakening after-effect, you feel truly renewed and invigorated. Sentinel tablets are not only the finest remedy known for constipation and torpid liver, but offer the sanest, most sensible treatment for complexion difficulties of the character mentioned.

Great Demand for New Constipation Remedy

"They say that the advent of the 'sentinel tablet' as a vegetable substitute for calomel has resulted in an extraordinary demand for this remarkable product. It seems that a sluggish liver, a constipated bowel, and those afflicted with chronic constipation, who were quick to recognize its advantages over calomel and the usual laxatives, doubtless owe their success largely to a tendency to aid in bringing about natural functioning—instead of encouraging the use of drastic remedies. Also, instead of injuring the membranous lining of the organs involved, they exert a healing influence. Instead of weakening, they aid in restoring normalcy. And, they are so easily and gently, they are of course preferred on this account to the violently acting purgatives. Their inappreciable advantage is another reason for the popularity of sentinel tablets. One need procure only a dime's worth, and take one tablet upon retiring, to be convinced that the ideal remedy for constipation, and the sanest treatment for complexion difficulties, has finally been found."—Drug Store Review.

Prevention Idea Grows

With the near approach of Fire Prevention Day, which has grown so rapidly from a great desire in the minds of a few to a vast national undertaking, cities all over the country are preparing for record breaking parades.

The most remarkable phase of this new celebration is the spirit with which busy men in all sections of the country are devoting their time to forward the cause. City officials, trained to an appreciation of the far-reaching effect our heavy fire losses impose upon all the people, are offering their service to the advancement of Fire Prevention Day with a will in accord with their other efforts after civic betterment. Fire chiefs in towns and cities are busy with men and apparatus, getting everything in shape for the parade, that is really to be an inspection by the people of their municipal forces for fire defense.

As a prominent off-shoot of Fire Prevention Day there has grown a week of good resolutions that is fast gaining a nation-wide impetus as Fire Prevention Week. The idea of this enlargement of the original plan was to prepare the people for the one big day.

Schools giving special attention to the week, teachers impressing the importance of the fire rules laid down by the schools as well as the need for reasonable care at all times in the home. The value of child training in this direction is too apparent to require emphasis. The majority of our fires originate in the home and the majority of those, who cause these fires are children. And only too frequently they pay the penalty. Statistics compiled in London, England, show that of 151 deaths caused by fire, 62 were children under twelve, making the proportion of their loss approximately forty per cent. of the total death toll.

Business houses, especially factories, are taking advantage of this week to warn and instruct employees; and to insure great safety through the removal of unnecessary fire hazards, and providing adequate means for extinguishing fire.

With these various endeavors paving the way, the big day at the close of the week bids fair to make so lasting an impression, great benefits are sure to accrue—and Fire Prevention Day will be in truth a concerted, national action against a merciless enemy. This day is born of the germ that has made America first among the nations of the earth. The germ that produced the railway, steamboat, telegraph, telephone, that demanded of science protection against disease—that gave birth to liberty. Yet we are still slaves to fire because we have not organized against it.

Fire Prevention Day is a great national endeavor to have all the people at the same time, thinking, talking and working to protect their lives, homes and their cities against that most cruel and wanton of all losses—fire. Fire Prevention, Day is America's opportunity and America's duty. It is the day when every citizen should do his part to help close the red route to destruction.

James J. Hill urges that we loan a billion or so to the belligerents of the Triple Entente. They are buying things from us, he argues, and if we do not lend them the money they cannot pay us for our goods, our exports will fall off and our crops will decline in value. Then all this tremendous "war order" export business is not real business at all—eh, Mr. Hill? Anyone can do business if he will lend his customers the money to pay their bills.

The warring Democratic factions in Maryland will soon hear their master's voice from the White House. State issues, personal ambitions are as nothing where Mr. Wilson rules. He is the whole thing in the Democracy, and he does not hesitate to let people know it.

Some Democrat in Kentucky is going to have a letter pretty soon. It will be dated at the White House and it will be signed by Woodrow Wilson. It will tell how much the President desires the election of a Democratic Governor in the blue-grass country, etc., etc.

In Boston they have it that the Colonel is going to vote the Republican ticket next. Stranger things have happened.

(Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Association.)

INDIANA DEMOCRACY.

Early Indiana Democracy was rock bed founded upon Jeffersonian and Jacksonian principles. It held that the Federal government was strictly limited in its powers and that internal improvements by National aid were unconstitutional. It gradually assumed a conservative position on the tariff question; emphasized the power of the states, and the rights of the individual. After the slavery issue dominated it, the Democracy espoused territorial expansion. Indiana was under Democratic rule continuously for nearly a fifth of a century—1843-1861—preceding the Civil War.

Current Comments

Alike, But so Different

(Portland Oregonian)

As a reason for the armed occupation of Haiti and for the proposed protectorate over that republic, Secretary of State Lansing said:

"These are not properly revolutions: they are unorganized enterprises which involve no question of principle; they are ruining the country. While they are in progress people are starving in the streets of Port-au-Prince because they cannot secure the supplies of food which abound in the country. Things have been going from bad to worse and something must be done. The United States Government has no purpose of aggression, and is entirely disinterested in promoting this protectorate. We have not even asked for Mole St. Nicholas."

In warning the rival chiefs of Mexico last June that they must get together or the United States would do something. President Wilson said that the "leaders of the revolution with whose purpose in the first place he sympathized, in the very hour of their success have disagreed and turned their arms against one another"; that "there is no proper protection either for their own residents or the citizens of any other nation resident or at work in her territory"; that "Mexico is starving and without a government," and that "the people and Government of the United States want nothing for themselves in Mexico."

There is a close similarity between these descriptions of conditions in the two countries, but how different is the treatment we have given. We alone occupy Haiti, stop the fighting restore peace and demand a protectorate. We call representatives of six other nations into conference on the case of Mexico, send the war chiefs an invitation to meet in conference and wait till all reply. In a few days the Pan-Americans are to meet again, and talk some more, perhaps write more moving appeals.

If we had done in Mexico a year ago what we have done in Haiti, Mexico might easily have been as peaceable as Haiti is today. The difference between the two countries today is due to the difference between watchful and vigorous action.

PAROLE IS TERMINATED

Charles Reed, Who Married Knightstown Widow, is Wanted.

Governor Ralston has terminated the parole of Charles Reed, who was sentenced to the state prison from Henry county for bigamy and who violated his parole. Reed married a wealthy widow in Knightstown and later it developed that he had a wife living in the east when his first wife appeared on the scene. Wife No. 1 offered to take him back, but he was given a prison sentence for bigamy. It is announced that he violated his parole, which has issued last November, for failing to comply with its provisions by making reports at stated periods.

SERIOUS DISEASES AVOIDED

By always keeping the bowels clear and clean many serious and chronic diseases may be avoided. Physicians almost as a unit declare this to be so.

LAXATIVE—If you are costive, bilious, have sick headache, sour stomach or bad taste in the mouth, take a Raymond Nerve and Liver Pill; relief and pleasant effects will follow.

CONSTIPATION—Can easily be overcome by using Raymond Nerve and Liver Pills. They are invigorating and will tone up the system.

PILES—Use enough Raymond Nerve and Liver Pills to keep the bowels open by taking one or more pills each night. Use Marigold Salve externally as per directions and a quick cure can be expected.

PIMPLES and BROWN SPOTS—disappear by taking one pill every night for a few weeks; facial eruptions are eradicated and the complexion and skin made beautiful.

Raymond Nerve and Liver Pills—we guarantee purely vegetable and can be taken with any medicine with safety. Manufactured and sold only by

Install this hot-air heating system in your home— at the cost of an ordinary stove!

If, in your home, you are using an old style stove, you are paying too much money for too little heat. For in the ordinary stove 50 to 75% of all the heat generated goes up and out through the chimney—a dead waste of heat and of money.

There's a new way now—a vastly better way that is revolutionizing home heating. It's the thing that everyone has been looking for—a hot air heating system that works as thoroughly and satisfactorily as the best small hot-air furnace, yet costs very little more than any ordinary heating stove to buy, no more to install, and much less to operate.

The diagram shows how it works

Fresh air (just as with a furnace) is drawn in at the sides, heated evenly to several hundred degrees temperature, and discharged—not through the flue and chimney, but through the top of the hot-air chamber into the room. This creates a thorough circulation of hot air that will successfully heat several rooms. Even the upstairs rooms can be heated by the aid of a simple pipe connection.

Estate Hot Storm

is two heating systems in one—not a stove, not a furnace, but a combination of the best features of both. It sets in the room like a stove, its exterior looks like a stove but there the similarity ends. For its interior is utterly different from any stove you have ever seen—inside it is built like a hot-air furnace.

We want every prospective heating stove purchaser in this locality to inspect the Estate Hot Storm at our store—to give us an opportunity to explain it—before buying a stove of any kind. You owe it to yourself to do this—and to do it soon.

beautifully strong they figured. For Magee, he got George Whitted, and Oscar Dugay, both brave irregulars; for Dooin, he got Bert Niehoff, and for Lobert, came Demaree, a collapsed sensation, and Milton Stock, whom McGraw had tried for three years to make a first baseman of, and failed.

First base was filled. Second was a huge aperture through which Moran in his dreams could see game after game slipping away. Niehoff was a comparative youngster, having seen but one year in the Big Time. Moran plugged second with Niehoff.

At short there was a hole, left there since the desertion of the inimitable Mickey Doolan. From the Pacific coast, Moran reached out and grabbed a youngster—Bancroft. Today there isn't a shortstop in any league that has anything on this bird.

The hole at third was a regular canyon. Moran took Bobby Byrne, a cog of Fred Clark's old 1909 champions, and alternating him with young Milton Stock, got by.

Here with one exception in the building up of an infield which has stood under the strain of setting a pennant race against such famous defenses as Schmidt-Evers-Maranville and Smith, and Merkle-Doyle-Fletcher and Lobert, and it was built at a moments notice.

Moran was lucky? Yah, so was Jess Willard, Percy Houghton, the Leland Stanford crew, Bill Johnston, Bob Gardner and others who came through in the face of monumental odds.

In the outfield, Pat had Dode Paskert, a veteran of rather doubtful stability, and Cactus Cravath, another veteran, noted solely for his long drives when he connected, which wasn't by any means regularly. There was also Beals Becker, a sort of baseball nomad, who had seen service under many managers. Moran alternated Becker with Whitted until he had his outer works running smoothly. There was the hole left by Slugging Sherry securely stopped.

Who is Pat Moran? Pat's just a big, red-headed, red-faced Irishman who doesn't know when he's licked, and doesn't know any more than just to do the best he can with what he's got. He never was a star ball player, as stars go.

John Patrick confesses to 39 years. He first yelled for more feed in Fitchburg, Mass., and broke into the game in 1897 as a part of the Lyons club in the New York jungle circuit. The club went floozy at the end of the next season, and Pat tied up his other shirt in his other handkerchief and trekked up to Cortland, New York, close to the Canadian border. He made eating money for a while there, and the next season hooked on with Montreal, from where the Braves signed him in 1900. After serving several years at the Hub, he was shipped to Chicago where he was Johnny Kling's understudy for several years. In the winter of 1909-10, the Phils got him. Pat's a catcher by trade. But he hasn't worked at it for some time. Of late, he's been spending his time building up a championship baseball team.

LAST GAME ON SCHEDULE

Elks and K. of P.'s Will Play at Edgewater Park Friday.

The last regularly scheduled game in the Fraternal League will be played at Edgewater park Friday afternoon at three o'clock between the Elks and the K. of P.'s. The competition between the two teams is keen, as the close of the league season is near and they are first and second place respectively.

"Gets-It" for Corns, SURE as Sunrise!

Any Corn With "Gets-It" on It, Lays Absolute "Goner!"

Yes, it's the simplest thing in the world to get rid of a corn—when you use "Gets-It." It's the world's greatest corn-killer. Really, it's a pleasure to have corns just as they

"Gets-It" Puts Your Feet in Clover!

When corns come off with "Gets-It," it just loosens the corn from the skin, and it comes off easily, and then makes it come "Gone" in 24 hours and corns for keeps. It makes the use of tape, corn-sucking bandages, irritating salves, knives, scissors, and razors really look ridiculous. Get rid of those corns quickly, surely, painlessly—just easily—with "Gets-It." For warts and bunions, too. It's the 20th century way.

SALES INDICATE A LARGE CROWD

That Seats Will be Sold Before I. U.

—Washington and Lee Game is the Prediction.

DELEGATIONS ARE GOING

Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—If the first day's sale of seats is a good omen, the crowd will be a record breaking one at the football game here October 30th between Indiana and Washington and Lee. Many of the good seats were grabbed off when the sale opened besides there was a very large mail order list provided for. That the seats would be sold out before the day of the game was the prediction made by those who have had some experience in matters of that sort.

The executive committee has issued instructions that the first applications shall be taken care of promptly and as the result the mail orders are increasing each day.

Scottsburg, Indiana, is organizing a large delegation which will come in a specially chartered car. The Big Four railroad is the first of the steam roads to make plans for the game and the management of the road announced that a special train, with special rates, will be run from Elkhart and Goshen the morning of the game.

Indianapolis people are taking greater interest in the game this year than they have ever done. All the civic bodies including the Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade, Rotary Club, and similar organizations are lending every assistance possible.

MORAN ANOTHER "MIRACLE MAN"

Manager of Phillies Had One Good Pitcher And a Lot of Cast-Off's to Start With

ALEXANDER WON 30 GAMES

But This Would Not Win Pennant Without Help—Plugged The Holes Successfully

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES
(U. S. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Oct. 7.—When George Stallings, a veteran at the managing game, steered a gang of baseball misfits into a National League pennant, and thence into a world championship, George Cohan dubbed him "The Miracle Man." The name stuck. Stallings was a Miracle Man.

Now it's up to somebody to invent a name for John Patrick Moran. For if ever a baseball manager deserved some sort of a laudatory title, that manager is red-headed Patrick. Some say Grover Cleveland Alexander won a pennant for Philadelphia and Patrick. He did, and he didn't. Alexander wasn't the terrible shooting constellation he now is until Moran was pitched somewhat precipitately into his managerial berth. He was a rattlin' good pitcher, but not an immortal last year. This year he is both. The records show that Alex has won 30 games. Thirty games do not win a pennant in anybody's league.

Stallings had a crew of baseball nobodies, among which were three good pitchers, and a second baseman. Moran had a pitcher, a catcher and a first baseman who could slug the ball. The rest didn't amount to much. They were—like Stallings' heirlooms—misfits, shunted from club to club. There were three men all stars, whom Moran could see spoiling what little ball club he had. They were Magee, a Philly slugging fixture; Hans Lobert, credited with being the best third baseman in the league; and Charley Dooin, whom he had deposed as manager. Magee was sent to Boston, Lobert to New York, and Dooin to Cincinnati. In deals which were the laughing stock of the league for a while Moran got by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

WAR PREVENTS BANKRUPTCY

Illinois Manufacturer Sees After Affects if Something is Not Done at Once.

MANY WILL BE AVAILABLE

They Will Work For More Meager Compensation That They Received Before Conflict.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—"The only thing that has saved the United States from commercial bankruptcy has been the European War," declares a leading Illinois manufacturer who has recently returned from England and Germany. "Remove that cause and the manufacturers of the world will make America the battle ground of the greatest industrial war the world has ever seen."

The earning capacity of the 100,000,000 people of the United States represents a purchasing power greater than that of any two other nations of the world put together, and the standard of living to which they have become accustomed makes that purchasing power potential under normal conditions. Surely such a market is worth striving for by our foreign competitors, even a protective tariff. And under a Democratic tariff the domestic market, so far as our industrial life is concerned, becomes well-nigh a gift causa mortis to our foreign rivals.

The Illinois manufacturer goes on to say: "A month—two months—after peace is declared in Europe will see President Wilson and Congress in a state of panic due to ruinous industrial conditions. A vast army of men who have been engaged in the European war will be available for the peaceful industrial pursuits of these countries, and they will be willing or forced to give their services for even less than the meager compensation they received before the war. And not only men, but thousands of women, now being trained in the mills will continue their work and add to the competition which American labor must meet. It must be remembered also that the purchasing power of Europe will be curtailed, especially in the matter of luxuries. Everything save the bare necessities of life, will be to a great extent unmarketable in Europe and will be dumped upon this country. Dress goods, textiles of nearly every variety that are used by both sexes, jewelry, china and a thousand and one articles of a similar nature will be shipped to the United States under our extremely accommodating Underwood tariff. America will be the one great cash market of the world and there will be a tremendous scramble on the part of every European nation to see which can get here first."

Of course this prophecy is based on the possibility of this country being cursed with a Democratic administration at the time peace in Europe is declared.

According to this manufacturer, the great industrial plants in Germany are all being operated at capacity or are being maintained in such condition and such state of organization that if peace were declared tomorrow they would begin with double shifts to win back their temporarily lost industrial supremacy. Products of many plants are being stored in anticipation of a resumption of commercial activity after the war. Ocean transportation difficulties have largely shut off the exportation of certain articles from Germany, Sweden, Norway and France, and English plants are getting the benefit. This explains why our importations of china, cutlery, and textiles are now coming so largely from England.

"What does this signify to the United States?" he was asked. "You cannot too strongly impress upon our people the importance of tariff revision before European factories begin to dump their products in the United States," he replied. "Unless conditions are foreseen and a tariff barrier erected against the influx of European manufactured articles, this country will experience a period of hard times, financial depression, business failure and suffering on the part of our great army of wage earners that will make previous periods of industrial stagnation resemble seasons of comparative prosperity."

In other words, the Republican party must be delegated to attend to the situation in a business-like manner.

SAYS INMATES ARE SATISFIED

Annual Report of Rush County Board of Charities Published in State Bulletin.

MANAGEMENT COMPLIMENTED

The annual report of the Rush county board of charities, published in the Indiana bulletin of charities and correction by the board of state charities, says that though the county infirmary is old and not well arranged for comfort, the inmates are apparently well satisfied. The report follows:

Poor Asylum, Rushville—The building is old and not well arranged for comfort in the winter season, as we understand comfort, but the men and women are satisfied and many of them are more comfortable than they ever were before they entered the home. We have always found the building clean in every department and the yards and gardens well kept. The inmates speak highly of the new superintendent and matrons. The food is sufficient and well prepared. The cook has the reputation of being the best in Rush county.

County Jail, Rushville—The building is clean, and, judging from all appearances the inmates must be cared for, but under the new management we have not found any prisoners on our tours of inspection. Each time the cells have been empty.

THREE MACHINE MEN GO ON TRIAL

First Cases Growing Out of Street Car Strike in Fort Wayne— Assault Charges

NEW ORDINANCE IN EFFECT

(By United Press.)
Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 7.—Three machinists of the Bowser plant who went on trial today charged with assaulting Roy Thompson, a strike-breaker of Indianapolis, was the first local court case growing out of the Fort Wayne street car strike.

Joseph Haffner, John Waldo and Leslie Libley were the three defendants. They are charged with having stopped Thompson's streetcar and kicked Thompson insensible. They have been out on $50 bond.

This was the day named by the city attorney when the new ordinance directed against the street car company should go into effect. The new ordinance, passed since the strike started, provides that the company shall not employ men to run its cars who have had less than 14 days local experience.

The ordinance is directed at strike breakers many of whom have been imported from various Indiana cities.

Notice to Non-Residents.
The State of Indiana, Rush County, In the Rush Circuit Court, September Term, 1915.

Hubert R. Jones et al. vs. John Wilson et al. Complaint No. 674.

Now comes the plaintiffs, by Kiplinger & Smith, Attorneys, and file their complaint herein, together with an affidavit, that the residence of the defendants, John Wilson, the unknown heirs of John Wilson, Lewis Jeffry, the unknown heirs of Lewis Jeffry, Rebecca Jeffry, the unknown heirs of Rebecca Jeffry, Elizabeth Wilson, the unknown heirs of Elizabeth Wilson, Robert Wilson the unknown heirs of Robert Wilson, James Wilson, the unknown heirs of James Wilson, John Wilson, the unknown heirs of John Wilson, William Wilson, the unknown heirs of William Wilson, Sarah Ann Wilson, the unknown heirs of Sarah Ann Wilson, Mariah Wilson, the unknown heirs of Mariah Wilson, Solomon Wilson, the unknown heirs of Solomon Wilson, Robert Wilson, Elizabeth Booker, William Wilson and James Wilson, is unknown, and that diligent inquiry has been made to ascertain the residence of said defendant, but that said inquiry has not disclosed the residence of said defendant.

Notice is therefore hereby given said defendants, that unless they be and appear on the first day of December, 1915, at the court house in Rushville, in said county and State, and answer or demur to said complaint, the same will be heard and determined in their absence.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the seal of said Court, at Rushville, this 6th day of October, A. D. 1915.

Storm Buggies that Will Keep You Warm, Look Nice and Wear Well. That's the Kind.

Everybody wants a nice storm buggy and I have one for everybody. Some of my competitors are going to quit selling buggies, or at least they advertise they are, and I am going to take their word for it, and just between ourselves, I have been looking for it for sometime, and I have reason for looking for it. Every year I sell more buggies than I did the year before and there is not much room left for competition. You naturally ask the question "How do you increase your buggy business all the time?" and the answer is that I give more buggy value for the money than anyone else, treat everybody alike and treat them right. I can prove I give more value for the money than my competitors as I am handling a storm buggy this winter, formerly sold by one of my competitors, and I am selling it for $10.00 less than it ever sold for before, remember the same buggy for $10.00 less. Maybe you bought one last year and paid the extra $10.00. If you did, remember when you need a buggy look around. It has saved lots of vehicle buyers money to buy them of me, and I want you for a customer. The only way you can sell things right, is to buy them right, and not throwing any bouquets at myself, I sure buy right and I want to give you the advantage of good buying. Good buying, and a large volume of business make it possible for me to sell you a buggy from $10.00 to $15.00 cheaper than any one else. It is a simple proposition to figure out how it is done, and when you get ready to buy a buggy, buy where the majority buy, and save.

FARMERS OFTEN PUT OFF WORK

Odd Jobs of Overhauling Implements Neglected Until Necessity Demands It of Them.

WINTER IS TIME FOR THIS

Large Part of Wheat Crop Given

Special Treatment Before Storing Because of Moisture.

Washington, Oct. 6.—So long as good weather continues in the fall most farmers are so busy with threshing, corn and potato harvest, fall seeding, hauling, etc., that less important work is usually postponed until winter. However, the exercise of a little thought and the expenditure of a very few minutes at this season will often save not only hours but days later on when the weather and roads get bad and outdoor work is impossible.

Then the odd jobs of overhauling the farm equipment, repairing, painting, etc., which have been put off until a slack season, will require attention. But all too often the necessary materials will not be on hand, and the work will be delayed until it is impossible to make a trip to town, and not infrequently it remains undone until the busy season the following year, when necessity demands it.

A list should be made of the things that will be wanted for the work. It will only take a few minutes to jot them down as they are brought to mind, and then on the next trip to town they may be bought and set aside so they will be ready when wanted. The conditions of the different machines which will, or should be, overhauled should be noted, and the parts which will need to be replaced purchased. Then there are the odd jobs of repairing buildings, fences, gates, etc., which will require lumber and nails; there is no need to make an extra trip for them when wanted—they may be brought home the next time a load is taken to town. Likewise the lumber and hardware for the small jobs of construction which should be done before spring. Also the paints, oils, putty and brushes which will be required in painting the various farm wagons, implements, inside woodwork, furniture, etc. And, above all, the necessary materials for improvements you have been planning for the house should be obtained so that they can be completed this winter and not have to wait another year.

Everyone knows how much more satisfactory it is to have the necessary equipment ready to perform a piece of work when an opportunity presents, than to get started on it and then find that it will have to be postponed until a trip can be made to town, which, even if the roads are good and the trip can be made at once, means a loss of time and added expense.

It is astonishing how much can be accomplished on rainy days or during slack time, when the tools and materials are at hand, and there should be no difficulty in overhauling practically every implement on the farm during the winter season, and have them ready for next season's work. The value of these "stitches in time" is frequently out of all proportion to the small amount of time they require. Aside from the satisfaction of having each implement in first-class shape when it is needed, there is the actual saving accomplished by avoiding having horses and hired help standing idle while repairs are being made, which, in turn, frequently means a loss of part of a crop.

months; there are plenty of them which will occur to the farmer who will spend a few minutes in considering the matter.

Much of this year's wheat crop has so high a moisture content that special treatment before storing it is necessary to insure its keeping in good condition. Tests conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, however, have demonstrated that it is not always necessary to put such wheat through a commercial drier, and that by mixing high moisture and low moisture wheat together the damp wheat can be put into good condition for storage. In these tests, a carload of white wheat from the Pacific Coast, containing 9.7 per cent moisture, was mixed with a carload of eastern red winter wheat testing 15.1 per cent in moisture. This difference of 5.4 per cent in the moisture content was reduced ten days after the mixing to only 0.5 per cent. In the course of the transfer of the moisture from the red to the white wheat no appreciable change in temperature was detected.

The information obtained from these tests will greatly facilitate, it is said, the handling of wet wheat this year. Millers can do away with part of the extra work of drying wet wheat by simply mixing it with the dry wheat they may have on hand, and if no dry wheat is available, they may dry out one carload and then mix it with another carload of high moisture content, instead of being compelled to dry out both carloads. If mills or elevators are equipped to mix and dry at the same time, this method will greatly increase their capacity, for taking care of large quantities of damp wheat.

More than 240 new game laws were enacted during 1915—a larger number than in any previous year except 1911, according to Farmers' Bulletin 692, "Game Laws for 1915." Forty-three States held regular legislative sessions, and in all of these States except Arizona, Georgia, and Nebraska some changes were made in the statutes protecting game. The largest number of new game laws passed in any one State was 61, in North Carolina; out in California, Connecticut, Maine, New Jersey, Oregon, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin the number reached 10 or more. Several measures were vetoed, including a general game bill in Idaho, the first bill appropriating the hunting-license fund in Pennsylvania, a bill protecting bears in California, and three sections of the game bill in Washington. A number of bills were introduced for the purpose of harmonizing the State laws or migratory birds with the Federal regulations. In at least nine States changes were made which brought the seasons into substantial agreement, viz, California, Connecticut, Maine, Michigan, New Hampshire, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Uniformity was also secured by provisions in the laws of Connecticut, Maine, New Mexico, North Dakota, Washington, and Wisconsin, prohibiting hunting between sunset and sunrise.

A DRESS AFFAIR.

"It was a merry party of little folks that took part in the wedding Parents, friends and citizens filled the house and were pleased. The little Misses in their long skirts with trains, were evidently much more at ease than their companions in the conventional black coats, but they certainly were no more graceful or dignified. "So speaks the Spirit Lake Iowa, Herald, concerning the Tom Thumb Wedding given there recently. Sixty of Rushville's little folks will present the Marriage of the Midgits at the Main Street Christian church tomorrow evening. They are busily engaged in rehearsals and will be fully prepared when the curtain rises.

DIVORCED A WEEK.

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to Mrs. Mary H. Vance and J. Frank Vance. Mrs. Vance was granted a divorce from him only last week and the reconciliation was effected in a short time. In the decree for divorce Mrs. Vance was given the custody of their children and $250 alimony.

mano and responded with an encore when the crowd became insistent.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum said the human element not only predominated throughout Riley's poems, but that he breathed the life of a little child into many. He said this was best illustrated in "Little Orphant Annie" which was sung by Miss Kathleen Hogsett. Illustrative of the same characteristic of his poetry is "A Temptuous Resolve," which was sung by Richard Pugh. Another typical childhood rhyme is "The Jolly Miller," which was sung by Miss Mary Louise Poe.

"An element that must be found in poetry to make it abiding is humanity," said the minister. "Another element is simplicity. Riley lived with the common people. His simplicity is most marked in his nature poetry. He has communed with nature. The message nature brought to Riley is one of faith, hope and love. He interpreted for man what nature taught him."

An example of this was "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin." It was sung by Miss Esther Anderson and Miss Dorothy Sparks.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum also said that Riley had written many patriotic poems, expressing Riley's love for the nation. One of the best illustrations of this phase of his poetry is "Old Glory," which was given by Miss Frances Frazee. Miss Frazee's rendition was very popular with the audience and she had to give two encores.

The Rev. Mr. Yocum said another element in his poetry which would make it abiding was that of philosophy and religion. The speaker said the religious note is very predominate and it is realized that he is a philosopher from some poems, such as "He is Dead." Illustrative of this phase, Miss Mary Louise Bliss sang "A Life Lesson."

In closing, the Rev. Mr. Yocum said he felt the audience had had a very comprehensive view of Riley and his works. The last number on the program was a beautiful solo, "A Little Bit of Heaven," by Mrs. Stiles of Cincinnati, who is visiting here. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. S. G. Huntington.

DRIVE THROUGH BALKANS STARTS

Austro-German Troops Cross Three Rivers Forming Serbia's Northwestern Frontier.

CONSTANTINOPLE THE GOAL

Coincident With Beginning of New Phase, Allies Renew Onslaught on Western Front.

(By United Press.)

London, October 7.—The long expected Austro-German drive through the Balkans to Constantinople has begun.

Austro-German troops in large force have crossed the Danube, Save and Drina, the three rivers forming Serbia's northwestern frontier. This afternoon official Berlin statement claims the crossing were effected at several points and that the Austro-Germans have obtained a firm footing on Serbian soil.

No word had come from Sofia this afternoon, but it believed possible Bulgarian troops have already crossed the eastern frontier of Serbia, striking for the Nish-Salonika railroad. The Greek minister to Sofia reported only two days ago that Bulgaria would invade Serbia when the Austro-German drive began. No formal declaration of war has come from Sofia but dispatches from there this afternoon declared Bulgaria expected to be at war within a few hours.

Coincident with the beginning of the great Austro-German offensive in the Balkans, the allies have renewed their onslaught on the western front.

The German war office this afternoon admitted that the Russian-French infantry drove the Germans from important Heights in the Champagne region, but declared other success were only temporary.

Paris reports the repulse of heavy German counter attacks on newly won ground, with the German heavy losses.

SCHOOLS OBSERVE
RILEY'S BIRTHDAY

Pretentious Program is Given at Jackson School and Elsewhere

Short Talks Are Given.

SOME NUMBERS ON EDISON

Riley day was remembered in all of the school buildings here today. Some of the rooms held programs and others did not observe the day so pretentiously, the teachers only making short talks regarding the beloved Hoosier poet.

Jackson school arranged a program for the occasion. The programs were made by the children out of writing paper folded once and the numbers were written out by the pupils. The program rendered was as follows:

Song "America"—School.
"Prayer Perfect"—Grade 6A.
Short Sketch of James Whitecomb Riley—Margaret Herkless.
Song, "An Impetuous Resolve"—Richard Pugh.
Edison Number—"The Raggedy Man."
Reading "Nobody Knows"—Emerson Price.
Song, "Little Orphant Annie"—Upper Grades.
Edison Number—"Out to Old Aunt Mary's."
March—"Under the Double Eagle."

SEES EARLY END TO WAR.

Berlin, October 7.—Quick and overwhelming victories for the central empires and a speedy ending of the war will follow Bulgaria's entrance to the conflict, it is believed in military circles here today.

MAYOR BELL ON

Bell never had mentioned it to him.

Lucius O. Hamilton had been mentioned as a Republican candidate for Mayor. His position as president of the biggest Republican club in Indiana president of the Employers' and president of the Hamilton-Harris Co., a wholesale tobacco firm has brought him to the front much recently.

Labor leaders with their minds on the two strikes in Indianapolis while Porteus was sheriff, were delighted when Hamilton testified, that his business associated had contributed to Porteus' aid and that he had advanced money to George Coffin, the sheriff-elect. They said this demonstrated that the Employers' Association had played to win no matter which candidate was elected. They were disappointed with the testimony of Porteus, but asserted that after all, Hamilton said he thought the money was going to help Porteus.
